Feeding Thousands Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .On the verge of celebrating her five year wedding anniversary to David, Erica was devastated when David walked away instead. A stay at home wife and mom since getting married, she was suddenly left alone to care for two small children in a town David had moved the family to since being promoted. With no family, friends, money or job, Erica quickly fell into depression and hopelessness. With seemingly nowhere to turn, taking her own life seemed like the perfect solution. Little did Erica know that there was a loving God that had an entirely different plan for her life. After a series of events that could have only been the Lord moving, Erica found herself making the decision to live and follow Jesus. Once He got a hold of her, there was no letting go and Erica never looked back. With a new found faith and hope, Erica set out to restore her marriage and face the uphill battle of winning back her unbelieving husband, not just for her marriage, but for her family and most importantly, for the kingdom of God. Her ups and downs as a wife, mother, daughter, woman and human are all chronicled in her journal and now a testimonial novel, known as her restoration journey.
