

Me, Dingo and Sibelius: A Feelgood Novel about an Ugly Duckling with Low Self Esteem Who Achieves Success (Paperback)

By Joy Wodhams

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Charlie Churchill is the odd one out, the ugly duckling in a dysfunctional all-female Liverpool family. She s the one who works a forty hour week, pays the bills and provides a modicum of common sense, plus - when she has time - a healthy cooked meal to balance the takeaways and ready meals the others thrive on. She s the one who looks like her deceased Dad, while Georgie and her illegitimate daughter Rosie (father the elusive Arsehole Alan) look like Mum. Slim, blonde, leggy and beautiful. It s too soon to tell with Georgie s baby Daisy (also illegitimate, father unknown but the consequence of a night s clubbing). Daisy, still bald-headed, currently resembles Harry Hill without the specs but will no doubt metamorphose into yet another blonde Churchill beauty. Charlie s escape from the shadow of her family is the Sundowners Retirement Home, where she has worked for the past five years as a lowly carer. Here, surrounded by her wrinklies as Georgie calls them, she can forget her daily concerns: the fact that her life...
