Chatto & Windus, 2004 9780701171292, 2004. Hardcover. Condition: New. Dust Jacket Included. NEW hardback in d/w. 322 pages. B/w photos. From the blurb: "Based on new and original research, this is an enchanting and evocative life of Anne Thackeray Ritchie, daughter of the author of Vanity Fair and step-aunt of Virginia Woolf (who used her as the model for Mrs Hilbery in Night and Day). Anny was a fine writer, and her novels and memoirs were much praised, but she was loved even more for her muddled ways and great sympathy for others. At the book's heart are two interwoven stories. The first is Anny's own inner life: her near-obsession with her father, William Makepeace Thackeray, her escape into writing and her startling marriage to Richmond Ritchie, seventeen years her junior, her second-cousin and her godson. The second, tragic, strand is the tale of her sister Minny's passionate marriage to Leslie Stephen, the brilliant, mountain-climbing don, and of his second wife, the beautiful Julia Jackson, mother of Vanessa Bell and Virginia Woolf. The story has never been told in detail before, and it reveals a totally unknown picture of Leslie - a happy, energetic man - instead of the famously moody and intemperate figure he became after Minny's death. Meticulously researched, this intimate story draws not only on a wealth of letters, journals, hitherto unpublished sketches and photographs. Illuminating, comic and touching, Anny reads like a novel, presenting a unique portrait of the rich literary world that formed the bridge between the Victorians and Bloomsbury".
