Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Report of the Trustees of the Boston Psychopathic Hospital: For the Year Ending November 30, 1926 There is no reason why a knowledge of nursing of mental diseases should not be a part of the regular curriculum for nurses. And once more we would particularly commend the Commissioner of the Department of Mental Diseases for aiding and abetting so substantially the ideals of service and scientific progress which prevail in this hospital. William Healy, Chairman; Channing Frothingham; Esther M. Andrews, Secretary; Charles F. Rowley; Allan Winter Rowe; Carrie Innes Felch; William J. Sullivan. Director s Report December 9, 1926. To the Board of Trustees of the Boston Psychopathic Hospital: In accordance with the provision of the statutes I submit for your consideration the report for the statistical year ending September 30, 1926, and for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1926. During the past year the work of the Hospital has progressed smoothly and a constant effort has been made to maintain the standard of accomplishment in relation to each of its numerous functions. The primary role of the Hospital is the care and treatment of the mentally sick. It has also to make a diagnosis in the case of a large number of individuals, whose problems are to a large extent social problems, such as individuals referred from the courts under various charges, individuals whose difficulties are under consideration by welfare organizations, and whose problems require some technical analysis by a psychiatrist, individuals, both juvenile and adults whose adaptation at school or in the factory and store has been so unsatisfactory that special technical examination is required. In addition to the diagnosis and...
