SAGE Publications Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Developing the Emotionally Literate School, Katherine Weare, 'As someone with an interest in emotional literacy and in developing emotional literacy work in schools, I found this book an impressive resource. I would recommend it for those interested in this area, those working within schools on emotional literacy, and for school staff interested in developing their schools as emotionally literate organizations' - "Debate". 'This is an authoritative and scholarly book that does not attempt to offer a simple fix - it solution but one that should lead to an informed and workable approach that will address the needs and circumstances of individual schools as such . I would recommend it as an essential read for anyone contemplating the research or promotion of emotional literacy in school' - "Special Children". 'There is much to encourage exploration by schools, educators and managers in an informed way. Helpful appendices list experienced agencies schools may approach in their work on emotional well-being' - "Emotional and Behavioural Difficulties". 'The book provides a useful guide to ways in which school policies for promoting emotional wellbeing can be developed' - "Times Educational Supplement", Teacher. 'This book is written in a refreshingly well-balanced style and it deserves a similarly even-handed review. Katherine Weare never exaggerates a point or pretends to have found the Holy Grail. Instead; each argument is carefully counter pointed by a caveat' - "Nurturing Potential". 'This is a handbook for teachers and LEA's with clearly headed sections, useful tables and list of resources and contacts. There are helpful suggestions for auditing emotional literacy in schools, deciding whether to use off-the-shelf programmes, tailoring programmes to the school's own needs, and working with the wider community' - "The Psychology of Education Review". 'Visionary and easy to read. This vision...
