Roli Books, New Delhi, India, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. First Edition. As part of its mission to enhance and encourage the discussion and interaction among world leaders, thus creating international quality platforms aimed at solutions, the Hindustan Times, among Indias most respected newspapers, recently unveiled The Hindustan Times Leadership Initiative. The Initiatives inaugural conference, The Peace Dividend: Progress for India and South Asia? was held in New Delhi in December 2003. Key political and business leaders, strategists and thinkers including Atal Bihari Vajpayee, Prime Minister of India, Sonia Gandhi, Congress President, Benazir Bhutto, former Prime Minister of Pakistan, Madeleine Albright, former US Secretary of State and Richard Haass, President, Council on Foreign Relations met to discuss and map the economic, strategic and geopolitical future of India and South Asia, and suggest ways of solving South Asias most trying problems, from Kashmir to a general absence of trust. Here Prime Minister Vajpayee first broached the subject of a South Asia monetary union and a regional security council; Gandhi of a South Asian parliament; and Bhutto of how Pakistan must radically rethink its India policy. The conference set the tone for much that transpired a few weeks later in Islamabad: a historic meeting between Vajpayee and President Pervez Musharraf that initiated a crucial thaw in Indo-Pak relations and encouraged hopes for a progressive and productive future South Asia, home to a quarter of mankind. This volume is a record of history in the making. The peace dividend for South Asia is the creation of new hope and opportunity for its billion and a half people.? Atal Bihari Vajpayee Prime Minister of India We owe it to ourselves and to our people, to all of South Asia, to make every effort to strive, to seek, to pursue peaceful means for the resolution of outstanding...
