

Heave a Bit, Driver: Seven Miles of Laughter (Paperback)

By Tony Sanders, Lorraine Sanders

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.It was once called the humour of despair! Thousands of men worked at the Liverpool Docks, stretching for seven miles from the Gladstone Dock to the Herculaneum. Dockers endured many long, poorly-paid, and soul-destroying hours, in what were often dreadful working conditions, but their humour helped them through. This book brings to life the fantastic characters, their terrific sense of humour, and wonderful expressions peculiar to themselves, in a collection of true stories that took place on the Liverpool Docks during the 1960s. The book will enlighten, enthrall, and educate, but most of all entertain, and leave you with a greater understanding of a part of Liverpool's history that has gone forever. More information about the book: The book is based on co-author Tony's memories of being a young Liverpool docker during the early 1960s. It is packed full of the Liverpool Dockers' humour, funny true stories; dockers' nicknames; phraseology; working practices and enlightening facts; in fact, it's a social document enveloped in humour! There isn't a book quite like it anywhere. Where would...
