Excerpt from Chosen English: Selections From Wordsworth Byron Shelley Lamb and Scott The preceding paragraph has been written to explain certain features of the present work. In the notes two sentences quoted by Professor Huxley have been kept in mind. The one is from Freeman The difference between good and bad teaching mainly consists in this, whether the words are really clothed with a meaning or not. The other is like unto it, from William Harvey, Those who, reading the words of authors, do not form sensible images of the things referred to, obtain no true ideas. For this reason (particularly in Shelley) About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
