In 2004, the author, Glen Aaron, was sentenced to two years in federal prison arising out of his attorney representation of a wealthy Wall Street Journal heiress and her husband. The Prison People; The Prison Experience takes you on an interesting to unique inmates met and what it is like to be incarcerated in America. It is not an oh poor me book. Fascinating characters and a look at Americas criminal justice system brings both humor and serious introspection about how we go about legislating crime and the retribution we require as a society.
