Excerpt from Report of the Committee on State and Municipal Taxation of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New-York, on the Tax Bills Pending in the Legislature: March 7th, 1901 Since the last meeting of the Chamber the tax bills at Albany, which relate to insurance companies, trust companies and savings banks, have been modified in such way as to relieve the interests concerned of a great deal of anxiety. It is not likely that further exactions will be placed on banks. The situation as to corporations at large has not been developed. There has been a disposition to relieve mortgages from taxation under the General Property Tax Law, and to make a tax for State purposes instead. It is notable that all the new taxes in sight will go to the State, and that, as respects trust companies, local taxes will be remitted excepting on real estate owned.
